

Privacy Policy

DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd recognises the importance of protecting the privacy of information we may collect from our on-line visitors. To this end, we are committed to using our best efforts to respect the privacy of our on-line visitors. It is our intent to balance our legitimate business interests in collecting and using information received from and about you with your reasonable expectations of privacy. The following is the way we handle information learned about you from your visit to our website.

Collective Data

DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd deposit certain bits of information called "cookies" in a visitor's computer. Cookies are sent back only to the web site that deposited them when a visitor returns to that site. Cookies can tell us how and when pages in a website are visited and by how many people. This technology does not collect personal identifiable information; the information collected is in an aggregate, non-identifiable form. With the information we can learn through this technology, we hope to improve our sites.

In addition, we gather information about you that is automatically collected by our Web server, such as your IP address and domain name. DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd may use this information to customize its offerings and presentations.

On occasion, we contract with third parties to place cookies on your computer's hard drive. These third parties have entered into an agreement with us that requires them to observe our Privacy Policy.

Some of our business partners may use cookies on our site (for example, links to business partners). We do not want our business partners to use cookies to track our customer's activities once they leave our sites. However, we may not have total control over how our business partners may use cookies on our Web site. If you become aware that a DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd business partner is placing an unwanted cookie on your hard drive, please contact us to assist us in resolving the problem, info@djrmarketing.co.uk.

Children

As a Marketing Services site we do not specifically collect information about children. We believe that children should get their parents' consent before giving out personal information. If you are concerned about your child's use of any of our web sites we encourage you to use Web filtering technology to supervise your child's access to the site.

Personally Identifiable Information

DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd collects personally identifiable information, such as names, addresses, E-mail addresses and the like, only when voluntarily provided by a website visitor. We will notify you as to the uses we intend to make of that information.

Links to Other Sites

As a resource to our visitors, DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd provides links to other websites. We try to carefully choose websites which we believe are useful and meet our high standards. However, because websites can change so quickly, we can't guarantee the standards of every website link we provide or be responsible for the content of non-DJR Marketing Solutions Ltd sites.

Changes

Any changes to this privacy policy will be communicated promptly on this page.
